

Overseer Juanita W. Morris

Professional Biography

Overseer Juanita W. Morris is the co-founder and Pastor/Teacher of New Covenant Family Church where she serves with her husband, Archbishop Grady L. Morris, Sr., who is the Presiding Archbishop and Patriarch of the Ekklesia Worldwide Communion and Missionary Societies.

Overseer Morris is a retired educator and university administrator, living in San Antonio, Texas, and is surrounded by her adult children, grandchildren, and great-grandchild. She is a native of Shreveport, Louisiana, a published author, and the co-founder of Covenant Christian Children's Homes of Texas. Overseer Morris holds a degree in Early Childhood Education from Southern University, a bachelor's degree from Wiley College in Organizational Management, a master's degree in Higher Education and Supervision from Nicholls State University, and is currently pursuing her Doctor of Philosophy from Northwestern University Theological Seminary.

Overseer Juanita and her husband, have devoted their lives to helping abused, neglected, abandoned children and the elderly. As the co-founder of the non-profit agency, Covenant Christian Children's Homes of Texas, she works untiringly to help place children in quality foster homes and provide assisted living for the elderly. Through CCCHOT, numerous families receive food, clothing, education, caregiver support and guidance for those individuals, who otherwise would be forgotten.

As an avid author and publisher, Overseer Juanita and her husband have penned a number of successful novels, "The Homegoing"; "On the Road to Glory;" "Badge of Honor: Shield of Faith," and a series of children's books entitled "God Lives" and "Gee Gee's Great Adventures."

Above all, Overseer Morris is a follower of Christ, a devoted and loving wife, and honored mother. With her husband of 44 years, Overseer Morris has raised 23 children including their biological children and is the proud grandmother of 27 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Her greatest joy is leading souls to Christ through the teaching of God's holy Word, all while feeding the hungry, clothing the naked and taking care of the widows and orphans.
